8. INDEMNITY AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 8.1 The Connector shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Loan Sahayak, its directors, officers, employees, agents, and Financial Institution partners (to the extent liability arises from the Connector's actions or omissions and is passed through to Loan Sahayak), from and against any and all losses, liabilities, claims, demands, damages, fines, penalties, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and investigation costs) arising out of or in connection with any breach by the Connector or its staff of the terms of this Agreement (including any representation, warranty, or covenant), any act of negligence, gross negligence, wilful misconduct, fraud, or criminal activity, any misrepresentation or omission by the Connector or its staff in the performance of Services or otherwise under this Agreement, any failure by the Connector or its staff to comply with Applicable Laws, data protection and security obligations, or the Loan Sahayak Code of Conduct, any claim by a Customer or third party arising from or related to the Connector's performance or provision of Services , and any act or omission of the Connector or its staff that results in a liability, fine, penalty, loss, or claim against Loan Sahayak under its agreements with Financial Institutions or any order or direction from a regulatory authority.
- 8.2 The obligations of the Connector under this Clause shall survive the termination or expiry of this Agreement.

9. AUDIT AND INSPECTION

9.1 Loan Sahayak and/or any Financial Institution (or their authorized representatives, including regulatory authorities like the RBI) shall have the right, with reasonable prior notice (except where an unannounced audit is required by a regulator), to audit and inspect the Connector's records, systems, processes, controls, and premises related to the Services, to ensure compliance with this Agreement, Applicable Laws, and the requirements of Principal Agreements. The Connector shall provide full cooperation, access, and assistance for such audits and promptly implement any corrective actions identified.

10. TERM AND TERMINATION

10.1 This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue unless terminated.

10.2 Termination by Loan Sahayak: Loan Sahayak may terminate this Agreement:

- a. Without cause, by giving the Connector 30 days prior written notice.
- b. Immediately, by written notice, if the Connector breaches any material term of this Agreement (including but not limited to obligations related to compliance, confidentiality, data security, or indemnity) and, if such breach is curable, fails to cure such breach within fifteen (15) days of receiving notice thereof.
- c. Immediately, if the Connector becomes insolvent, enters into liquidation, has a receiver appointed over its assets, or if any regulatory action is taken against the Connector that, in Loan Sahayak's reasonable opinion, prevents or is likely to prevent it from performing its obligations or adversely affects its reputation.
- d. Immediately, if any Principal Agreement(s) under which Loan Sahayak requires the Services is terminated, suspended, or significantly altered, or if directed by a Financial Institution or regulatory authority.
- e. Immediately, if the Connector fails to adhere to the Loan Sahayak Code of Conduct or any critical compliance directive.

10.3 Consequences of Termination: Upon termination or expiry:

- a. The Connector shall immediately cease providing Services and cease representing itself as associated with Loan Sahayak.
- b. The Connector shall promptly (and in any event within 7 days) return to Loan Sahayak all Confidential Information, Data, documents, records, and materials (and all copies thereof) belonging to Loan Sahayak, its Customers, or Financial Institutions, or, if requested by Loan Sahayak, securely destroy them and provide a certificate of destruction.
- c. The Connector shall fully cooperate with Loan Sahayak to ensure a smooth transition of any pending work or customer-related matters.
- d. Accrued rights and obligations (including payment for Services satisfactorily rendered up to the effective date of termination, and all provisions of this Agreement that by their nature are intended to survive) shall survive.

11. NON-SOLICITATION

- 11.1 During the term of this Agreement and for a period of twelve (12) months thereafter, the Connector and Connector's Staff shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit any business from the original clients of Loan Sahayak who were assigned to them for any specific service.
- 11.2 During the term of this Agreement and for a period of twelve (12) months thereafter, the Connector shall not offer employment to any Loan Sahayak employee as an employee, consultant, or otherwise with whom the Connector or Connector's Staff had contact in relation to this Agreement or the Services.

12. RELATIONSHIP OF PARTIES

- 12.1 The relationship between Loan Sahayak and the Connector is that of independent contractors. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as creating a partnership, joint venture, agency, or employer-employee relationship between the Parties. The Connector shall be solely responsible for its own Connector's Staff, including their terms of employment, remuneration, statutory contributions, and compliance with all applicable laws to his /her business under this agreement.

13. ASSIGNMENT AND SUB-CONTRACTING

- 13.1 The Connector shall not assign, delegate, or sub-contract any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement to any third party without the prior express written consent of Loan Sahayak, which consent may be withheld or granted subject to such conditions as Loan Sahayak deems fit (including requiring the sub-contractor to adhere to terms no less stringent than those in this Agreement). Loan Sahayak may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement to an affiliate or in connection with a merger, acquisition, or sale of its business.

3. The Connector and his employees/representatives should not call a person whose name/ number is flagged in any "Do Not Call" list made available to them.
4. During the call: Identify yourself, your company and your principal, request permission to proceed and if denied permission, apologize, state the reason for your call and politely disconnect. Never interrupt or argue with the prospective customer. To the extent possible, talk in the language most comfortable to the prospect and keep the conversation limited to business matters. The Connector shall be polite and not use any harsh language to the prospective customer
5. Calls must first be placed to the prospective customer. If the prospective customer is not available, a message may be left for him. The aim of the message should be to get the prospect to return the call or to check for a convenient time to call again.

6. The Connector shall clearly explain the requirement of the company for processing the loan.
7. The Connector and his employees/representatives should not
 - Mislead the prospective customer on any service/ product offered by ULSPL;
 - Mislead the prospect about their business or organisation's name or falsely represent themselves
 - Make any false/ unauthorised commitment on behalf of ULSPL for any facility/ loan/service.
8. The Connector may collect the documents from the prospective customer and provide the same to the Company for consideration. The Connector shall not promise sanction of the loan either verbally or in writing under any circumstances.
9. The Connector shall not disclose the details of the prospective customer and ensure confidentiality of the data. He shall disclose or interact with the spouse or secretary or such persons only when authorized by the prospective customer.
10. The Connector should check for the understanding of the prospective customer on the "Most Important Terms and Conditions", if he plans to buy the product.
11. The Connector/his employee/representative should provide his telephone number, his supervisor's name or the ULSPL Officer's contact details if asked for by the customer.
12. Customers who have expressed their lack of interest for the offering should not be called for the next 3 months with the same offer.
13. Employees / representatives of the Connector must not accept gifts from prospective customers or bribes of any kind. Any employee / representative of the Connector, who is offered a bribe or payment of any kind by a customer, must report the offer to his / her management. The Connector must immediately report the same to ULSPL including details of the concerned prospective customer.
14. The Connector should respect the personal space – maintain adequate distance from the prospective customer;
15. The Connector should not enter into the prospective customer's residence / office against his / her wishes and shall not visit in large numbers, i.e. not more than one employee/representative of the Connector and one supervisor if required.
16. The Connector or its employees/representatives should not resort to intimidation or harassment of any kind, either verbal or physical, against any person, including acts intended to humiliate publicly and not to send any inappropriate messages either on mobile or through social media, making threatening and/or anonymous calls.

17. Employees / representatives of the Connector must be appropriately dressed according to the standard of ULSPL.

I hereby understand and acknowledge the Code of Conduct as set out above.

SCHEDULE D: CONNECTOR'S CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

URBANEDGE LOAN SAHAYAK PRIVATE LIMITED

Conflict of Interest Policy for Connectors

Introduction

This Conflict-of-Interest Policy ("Policy") is designed to promote transparency, integrity, and ethical behaviour in all dealings conducted by Connector (the "Connector (s)") of Urbanedge Loan Sahayak Private Limited (Loan Sahayak or Company or ULSPL). The Policy outlines the expectations and guidelines that Connectors must follow to ensure that they act in the best interests of our customers and maintain the trust of all stakeholders, including customers, banking partners, and the company itself.

1. Purpose

The primary purpose of this policy is to:

- Ensure that connectors do not engage in actions that shall result in a conflict between their personal interests and their professional duties.
- Safeguard the integrity of Loan Sahayak and its relationships with customers, financial institutions, and other partners.
- Provide guidance on identifying, disclosing, and managing potential conflicts of interest

2. Definition of Conflict of Interest

A conflict of interest arises where the Connector (in case of Corporates- their Directors and KMPs) or their relatives as per the Companies Act, 2013 are bank/NBFC/Loan Sahayak employees or have ownership interest/ holds management control or holds decision making position in the bank or NBFC or Loan Sahayak.

3. Disclosure of Potential Conflicts

- The Connector confirms that there is no conflict of interest by signing below. However, in case a conflict of interest arises in future, it shall be the duty of the Connector to disclose the Conflict to Loan Sahayak.
- The Connectors shall disclose any potential or actual conflicts of interest to Loan Sahayak at the time of lodging any case, file, transaction for processing and at any time thereafter when they first come to know of such conflict of interest

4. Managing Conflicts of Interest

Upon disclosure of a potential or actual conflict of interest, the company will

- Assess the nature and significance of the conflict.
- Determine whether the Connector can continue to be involved in the transaction or whether reassignment or other actions are necessary to resolve the conflict.
- Ensure that the Connector's decision-making process is unbiased and in line with the company's ethical standards and customer-centric values.

In some cases, depending on the nature of the conflict, the Connector shall be required to recuse themselves from a particular transaction or relationship to ensure that the conflict is appropriately mitigated.

5. Prohibited Actions

- Connectors shall not engage in actions that could undermine the integrity of Loan Sahayak's relationships with its banking partners, customers, or other stakeholders.
- Connectors should not influence or mislead customers by promoting loan products that do not align with the customer's best interests or financial needs.
- Connectors are prohibited from accepting compensation, whether directly or indirectly, from any party other than Loan Sahayak for referring customers to specific lending institutions or services.

6. Enforcement and Consequences

Failure to comply with this Policy shall result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment or contractual relationships with Loan Sahayak. If a conflict of interest is not disclosed or managed appropriately, Loan Sahayak reserves the right to hold any amount payable to the Connector or take legal action to recover any losses incurred.

7. Review of Policy

This policy will be reviewed periodically to ensure it remains effective and in compliance with legal and regulatory standards. Any changes to this policy will be communicated to all Connectors, and they will be required to acknowledge receipt and understanding.

Conclusion

At Loan Sahayak, we are committed to providing transparent, honest, and ethical services to our customers. Our Connectors play a critical role in maintaining the trust of our clients and partners, and it is essential that they uphold the highest standards of conduct, free from conflicts of interest. This policy serves as a guide to help Connectors navigate situations that shall create potential conflicts, ensuring that all actions taken align with the company's values and the best interests of our customers.

I hereby understand and acknowledge the Conflict-of-Interest policy as set out above.
